RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On July 31, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that as a result of receiving the influenza (“flu”) vaccine on October 24, 2015, she suffered from a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). Petition at 1-4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 7, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent the Division of Injury Compensation Programs, Department of Health and Human Services (“DICP”) “has reviewed the petition and medical records filed in this case, and has concluded that compensation is appropriate.”

Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that “based on the record as it now stands, petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act.” Id.

In view of respondent’s position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
